Resolution: Recognition of Student Faculty Governance – Faculty Senate Collaboration

Whereas, Western Carolina University Faculty Senate governance and decision-making of all academic aspects of the University are:

Whereas, Faculty Senate serves as the primary voice for the faculty to address the Chancellor and the President on the behalf of faculty concerns;

Whereas, the WCU College of Education (COE) and other divisions play a significant role as partners “with faculty, departments and personnel in providing evidence-based, inquiry-oriented approaches to assessment, curriculum development, instructional methodology, research and the Scholarship of Learning and Teaching”;

Whereas, the faculty seek to create a more cohesive teaching-learning environment that fosters student learning experiences, and foster the best common good to meet the needs of the students for faculty with a goal to help prepare students to be ready to reach practice;

Whereas, all those involved will be committed to the holistic of teaching and learning (WCU) together to foster an environment of continuous learning and improvement of student learning experience and feedback (WCU);

Be it resolved that the Faculty Senate will continue to comply, appreciate, participate in, and collaborate with the Center for the Scholarship of Learning and Teaching to further our institution’s interdisciplinary initiatives;
