For new and returning transfer students

As a transfer student new to Western Carolina University, we recognize that you are ready to build upon your existing foundation, and already possess a range of experiences and unique perspectives framed by prior educational opportunities. We are excited for you to pursue your Degree with us at WOU!

1.

Your experience at WOU will be completely different from your experiences at previous institutions. Approach WOU as new, uncharted territory to be navigated instead of assuming the processes might be the same.

e have tons of resources available to you, and helpful staff to assist you make sure you check them out and

1

Stages of culture shock incl

Re-

С

Α