

Spring 2023 Schedule

Cullowhee, Main Campus (Tuesdays, 10am – 12pm) Asheville, Biltmore Park Site (Thursdays, 10am – 12pm)

January 17 & 19, 2023

Andrew Danner – Managing our Appalachian Forests

Biography:

Andrew

Danner

has published several

of his most recent work focuses on the role of forests

in the management

of

Appalachian

forests.

He

is currently working on

several

projects

related to forest

management

and conservation.

He

is also an active member

of

the

Appalachian

Forest

Foundation.

Eniv
a Entep
Recenthi

o pcto
e, So t
sea

o
ch ha

January 31 & February 2, 2023

Dr. Penny Smith – Baseball and It's Relationships to American History and Culture

Biography:

Penny Smi
i se ha at o

ned -G
theret

eenbo

ementf

ni

f

aa
ta

Presentation Outline:

Ba
ho
i cha

eba
eba
ngso lco

eba

p wa

lhi

b iv libe p

o

February 14 & 16, 2023

Dr. Casey Hurley – 6 Virtues of the Educated Person

Biography:

la

Ap end

-1970. Af

ed

Eng

s (1973) f

Scho

-77. lea

nd

o

d ya

sw

sa

na

H

g Scho

-1988. lecei

-Ma ed

Si

nce ten, lha

e been la

Uni

es

yet

r

Presentation Outline:

1. W ha

td

2. W

ha

ta

e lie e

3. W

ha

ma

esa

February 21 & 23, 2023

Denise Drury Homewood – Cultivating Cultural Curiosity at Bardo Arts Center

Biography:

Deni

e Dr

o

eco

Presentation Outline:

he f

ho nu t

p d r of

ero

nu

eno

Mo

be f

vlt. t

o

March 21, 2023 (Cullowhee campus ONLY)

Dr. Todd Collins – Power, Policy, and Politics: How the U.S. Supreme Court Works

Biography:

Dr to

d

Sci ence a nd

f -Cha

PH

o la

n

a -iv

n a nni

ne a d chera

j

the W

CU ca

me a

chi